

EQUINE EVACUATION TO-DO CHECKLIST

<input type="checkbox"/>	Written Emergency Response Plan
<input type="checkbox"/>	Call tree established
<input type="checkbox"/>	Equine Information Sheet posted on stall
<input type="checkbox"/>	Evacuation Collar with Equine Information Sheet on stall door/easy access
<input type="checkbox"/>	Alternate means for equine identification available (livestock markers, permanent markers, chalk, spray paint, halter tags)
<input type="checkbox"/>	Hard copy list of emergency resources with contact information (veterinarians, shelter sites, hay suppliers, horse transporters, law enforcement, fire departments)
<input type="checkbox"/>	Go-to bags for individuals and equines completed
<input type="checkbox"/>	Notebook with hard copy of Evacuation Plan, Emergency Resources and Equine Information Sheet on each horse easily accessible on site and on line
<input type="checkbox"/>	Vaccinations and Coggins current on all equines (do not include Coggins in Evac. Collar)
<input type="checkbox"/>	Medications available and current
<input type="checkbox"/>	Experienced drivers and equine handlers recruited for emergency evacuation
<input type="checkbox"/>	Trucks/horse trailers with capacity to transport all horses on property
<input type="checkbox"/>	Transport vehicles' gas tanks at $\frac{3}{4}$ full
<input type="checkbox"/>	Gas and diesel fuel cans kept full
<input type="checkbox"/>	CB Radios/walkie-talkies in Go Bag or transport vehicles as alternate communication
<input type="checkbox"/>	Locations/barns/pastures to evacuate all equines to in case of emergency
<input type="checkbox"/>	Mapped out optional routes to evacuation site(s)
<input type="checkbox"/>	Paper maps for all local areas and evacuation routes
<input type="checkbox"/>	Highly visible placards on property to inform if animals are left on property
<input type="checkbox"/>	All equines on property trained to load into a trailer
<input type="checkbox"/>	Emergency evacuations or table top exercises practiced annually by boarders/owners
<input type="checkbox"/>	Identify who will feed/take care of equines if unable to return to property for days/weeks
<input type="checkbox"/>	Feed, water supply, medications for a week on the property for all equines
<input type="checkbox"/>	Waterproof containers for emergency food, equipment, supplies